Resident Of the Month

This month we are pleased to announce the most popular, well-known and vivacious resident here at the home as our Resident of the Month (drum roll please) Stewart Mathews! Stewart came into this world in the lovely town of Brooklyn, New York. His father worked for the CIA. Stewart has an interest in intelligence, history and political ideas. He states he follows no definitive political. He is pleased to have met John McCain and Janet Napolitano. Ask him about current issues and he will give you an earful!

Some accomplishments Stewart has achieved include graduating from college without having graduated high school (at the University of Colorado). Stewart minored in history and majored in business. With trivia and history, Stewart has quite a reputation for knowing his stuff! He enjoys American Civil War history and his family fought for the Confederates. There will be a trivia competition November 14th at the Veterans Home and Stewart promises to be a tough one to beat!

Stewart is very pleased to be the father of a son named Shawn who also has a military history and learned music while on active duty. Stewart would love to live with his son, and makes visits to see John whenever possible. Stewart states he loves life and wants to be remembered for being honest. He dislikes bullies.

Stewart has many hobbies and interests. He loves writing, poetry, reading, and learning new things. He collects coins and pins and has quite a collection. Stewart's favorite sports teams are the Denver Broncos and the St. Louis Cardinals. He is always up for an all-American game of baseball or football as well as other sports including NASCAR racing which he looks forward to attending whenever possible.

One of Stewart's favorite hobbies is photography and scrap-booking. He takes great efforts to document activities and the lives of other residents, staff and volunteers at the ASVH as well as those he comes in contact with socially. He has many photograph albums and has donated some to the recreation department to be viewed and loved by all residents. He is very kind and loving, enjoying the opportunity to recognize others, give gifts, or teach and talk to others to show he cares.

Stewart is a Vietnam Vet and tells us he "loves this place. It is much better than a nursing home." He desires to continue to live and love life the way he currently does. He states he will, "live just as long as I can." We're right there with you through the years Stewart, and congratulate you on being November's, "Resident of the Month

VFW Employee of the Year

The Arizona State Veteran Home would like to thank the VFW for allowing this opportunity to recognize and honor Mrs. Lori Mills as the Arizona State Veteran Home as their Employee of the Year. Lori started at the Arizona State Veteran Home as a Certified Nursing Assistant in 1995 and was promoted to their Staffing Coordinator in 2001. A staffing coordinator is probably the hardest job there is in a nursing home. Lori has to keep a 200 bed nursing home staffed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. She has to walk a tight rope between the hard line of requiring people to come in and work their shift and the soft line of asking these people for a favor by filling in a vacant shift. When asked how she does it, she just replies "I love a challenge and find it very rewarding to get all the slots filled when someone calls in sick".

The Veterans rely on Lori Mills to do an outstanding job. She is not allowed to do anything less than a perfect job, since 200 veterans count on her everyday to keep the nursing home fully staffed. The nursing staff themselves say that Lori is a person they respect and that she has developed such a good rapport with all of them that they understand the need to pitch in when she calls.

Her supervisors say that Lori is one of the reasons this home runs so efficiently. They credit her with the ability to keep the nursing staff happy and committed to their schedules. Lori's love for a challenge makes her the best suited person for this demanding and stressful job. She always rises to the occasion, working a varied schedule to ensure that her job gets done. Lori's husband Les needs to also be recognized as he is extremely understanding of her need to take phone calls all hours of the day and her need to be at work some weekends to ensure all shifts are covered.

The Arizona State Veteran Home is proud to count Lori as one of their employees and is grateful for her outstanding organizational skills, her easy going approach to a stressful job and her diligence in assuring that the Veterans in this home receive the quality of care that they deserve through her role as Staffing Coordinator.

Important ASVH News

Administrator Thomas Creager just announced that Arizona State Veteran Home (ASVH) has opened a twenty five bed wing designed to provide rehabilitative services to veterans.

Seven days a week Physical therapy, Occupational therapy and Speech therapy are available and provided in the Home's rehab gym. Therapeutic activities include muscle electrical stimulation to assist with returning function, ultrasound to decrease pain, diathermy to increase healing and therapeutic exercise. The Home's experienced Social Service Staff provide help with returning veterans to their homes following rehabilitation.

The Arizona State Veteran Home (ASVH) is the 200 bed Medicare certified skilled nursing facility located at 4141 N. Third Street, Phoenix, Arizona. This is the State owned Home located a short walk across the parking lot from Veterans Administration Medical Center. Both ASVH and the VA Medical Center provide health care to the veteran population of Arizona.

Veterans Day

We welcome everybody to join us here at the ASVH at 11:00a.m. to celebrate Veteran's Day. There will be a ceremony and Arizona Governor Janice K. Brewer will be in attendance.

Holiday Decorations Guidelines

Christmas Trees: Please be sure they are artificial and no more than 2 feet tall. Please do not decorate with any electric lights; you may use lights if they are battery operated. An amaryllis bulb is a nice substitute for a Christmas tree.

Hanging Decorations: The Fire Marshall limits the amount of wall space that can be covered so we ask that no decorations are hung on the walls, doors or ceilings. Our doors are the first line of defense against a spreading fire so we must leave them clear of any decorations. Please feel free to decorate bulletin boards or to bring in picture frames or other small items for their dresser or tray table.

Menorahs: We are not allowed any open flames, Electric Menorahs will be provided at each Nurse's Station. Personal Menorahs in rooms should be battery operated. We are not allowed to have wax candles in the facility.

Recreational Therapy Department Spotlight

By Leslie Goin

The Volunteer program has expanded its services to include Concierge Services. This includes being a greeter at our front door, answering telephones on weekends/early evenings and accompanying Veterans to medical appointments next door at the hospital. Taking a Veteran to a ball game sounds like a lot of fun, but assisting one of America's Heroes to a Dr's appointment surprisingly turns out to be way more rewarding. As one of our volunteers, Madylon stated "The best day of my week is the day I spend here at the Veteran's Home". There are moments when the greeter at the front door is the most important person in our Veteran's lives. As the Veteran comes out front to start the day, this greeter is the one who offers a ray of sunshine in their smile. It is the greeter who offers an encouraging word to a family member to keep visiting even if the Veteran may no longer recognize them. We must never under estimate the impact of a kind word or smile. Greeters at our front door set the tone for a joyous day. A familiar face at the medical appointment often is enough support to help our Veterans 'Keep On Keeping On'. If you would be willing to help out with this new and vital program please call Ray Nevarez at 602-370-5793 or rnevarez@adv.s.gov

We want to honor one of our long standing volunteers Keith Collier this month. Keith assists with the Bible Study every Thursday morning and has been a volunteer for over 7 years. Not only is his commitment amazing since he shows up week after week, but it is truly an accomplishment considering the fact that Keith is now in his 90's!

We realize how important volunteers are to the success of the Arizona State Veteran Home. In order to further expand our program we have put together a team to coordinate our Volunteer Program. Please welcome Ray Nevarez as the Concierge Services Coordinator and Michelle Doherty as our Volunteer Trainer.
